Ken McQueen, Chris McClurg, Blake Peters, and Jack Sims of Lee & Associates skillfully represented Supply Chain Solutions in this transaction.

On the other side, the landlord, ViaWest Group, was represented by the adept landlord broker team of Rob Martensen, and Sam Jones of Colliers.

Ken McQueen, Lee & Associates, expressed, “Our team is pleased to have identified such a high-quality project that met all of Supply Chain Solution’s functional needs, locational and size parameters at Sight Logistics.

This transaction was quite complex; however, both sides worked diligently to find a mutually beneficial solution.”

Sight Logistics Park, located at 6460 S Harl Ave in the vibrant city of Tempe, AZ, is an innovative industrial facility comprising two Class A buildings.

Prior to ViaWest’s redevelopment to industrial, this site was an office headquarters for Insight Global. The new state-of-the art industrial campus consists of 357,000 SF thoughtfully designed to meet the dynamic needs of modern enterprises.

“We are thrilled to welcome Supply Chain Solutions to Sight Logistics Park. This partnership underscores our commitment to providing top-tier facilities for world-class businesses.

Supply Chain Solutions’ choice to establish their operations in our park is a testament to the quality of our properties and the strategic advantages they offer,” stated Danny Plapp, Director of Leasing at ViaWest Group.

“This best-in-class project has attracted impressive attention from noteworthy tenants,” says Rob Martensen, Vice Chair of Colliers in Arizona. “It is exciting to have completed another large lease transaction here, bringing dynamic activity to Sight Logistics Park.”

The leasing of this space is indicative of ViaWest Group’s dedication to enhancing the industrial landscape of Tempe and their ability to attract leading companies in the supply chain industry.

Sight Logistics Park offers unparalleled access to major transportation networks, a benefit that Supply Chain Solutions will now leverage to enhance their operational efficiency.

The integration of Supply Chain Solutions into the Sight Logistics Park community not only reflects the park’s growing reputation as a nexus for commerce and industry but also ViaWest Group’s role as a catalyst for economic growth and innovation in the region.
